CAPTAIN EDWARD COBB OUTLAW, U. S. NAVY

Captain Outlaw is a veteran of over twenty-four years' service in the United States Navy in a career that is distinguished by many honors, unflinching service that is in the highest traditions of the Navy, and a background of wide and unusual experience.

Graduated from high school in 1930, he was appointed to the U. S. Naval Academy, Annapolis, Maryland in 1931 where he was graduated in the Class of 1935.

His first assignment was to the cruiser USS INDIANAPOLIS, from which he was ordered to flight training at Pensacola, Florida, and was designated a Naval aviator in 1938. He was subsequently assigned to Squadron VS-6 on the USS ENTERPRISE and then to Corpus Christi, Texas. In May 1942 he was ordered to VGS-11 as Executive Officer of that squadron aboard the carrier USS ALTAMAHAN, then to Guadalcanal as Operations Officer of Navy Fighter Group I.

In April 1943 Captain Outlaw was assigned as Commanding Officer of Fighter Squadron Thirty-two. He saw service in the Pacific in this squadron through the second battle of Truk. For action in this capacity he was awarded the Navy Cross, the citation of which reads:

"For extraordinary heroism as Commander of Fighting Squadron Thirty-two and Flight Leader of two divisions of fighters, attached to the USS LANGLEY, during fighter sweep against enemy Japanese forces in the vicinity of Truk Atoll on April 29, 1944. Boldly intercepting two flights of approximately forty enemy aircraft, (then Commander) Outlaw skillfully engaged the enemy, destroying five of the hostile fighters in the ensuing action. Under his superb leadership and perfect air discipline, his fighters destroyed twenty-one enemy fighters and put the remainder to flight, without loss to his command. By his expert airmanship, sound judgment, and unfaltering devotion to duty (then Commander) Outlaw contributed to the success of our forces in gaining superiority of the air in this strategic area. . . ."

For action in June of the same year while on one of his thirty missions against the enemy when he distinguished himself by the heroism of his search for his missing wingman under intense enemy anti-aircraft fire, he was awarded a gold star in lieu of a second Distinguished Flying Cross, the first having been awarded for action in the Solomon Islands in 1943. During his tour with Fighter Squadron Thirty-two he was awarded a gold star in lieu of his third Distinguished Flying Cross, the Air Medal and gold stars in lieu of second, third, fourth, fifth and sixth Air Medals.

In July 1944 he was assigned as Operations Officer of Task Group 38.2 under Rear Admiral Gerald Bogan, USN, where he served until March 1945. While serving in this capacity, he was awarded the Legion of Merit "for exceptionally meritorious conduct in the performance of outstanding service. . . ."

In his following duty he served as Executive Officer of the Naval Air Station, Corpus Christi, Texas, and later as Training Officer of the Basic Training Command. In January 1947, Captain Outlaw attended the first class at the Armed Forces Staff College and in June of that year assumed command of Battle Carrier Air Group Five, assigned to the USS CORAL SEA. Following this duty, he served as Training Officer, Air Force Atlantic Fleet until ordered to VC-5, the first heavy attack squadron. There he served in various capacities for two years, completing this tour as Commanding Officer.

From VC-5 he was ordered to Washington, D.C., where he served as Chief of Operations and Training, Armed Forces Special Weapons Project. In January 1953 he was assigned as Executive Officer of the USS F. D. ROOSEVELT. In July 1954 he attained the rank of Captain and was appointed to the Staff, Commander Striking Forces Southern Europe. His next duties were on the staff of the Chief of Naval Operations, OP-55.

On graduation from the National War College in June, 1958, Captain Outlaw reported aboard the USS DUXBURY BAY as Commanding Officer. He served in this capacity until assuming command of the USS INTREPID on September 10, 1959.

In addition to the Navy Cross, the Legion of Merit, three Distinguished Flying Crosses and six Air Medals, he holds a Presidential Unit Citation for service with Task Group 38.2, a Navy Unit Commendation for service aboard the USS LANGLEY, the Philippine Liberation Ribbon, American Defense Service Ribbon, Asiatic-Pacific Campaign Ribbon, American Campaign Medal, Navy Occupation Service and National Defense Service Medal.

Captain Outlaw is married to the former Mary Ellen Yeargin, of Pensacola, Florida. They have a son, Edward C. Jr. (19), and currently reside at Virginia Beach, Virginia.

Captain Minter says Hello . . .

8 SEPTEMBER 1960 — FUIMICINO, ITALY

On 8 September, Captain Charles S. Minter, Jr., relieved Captain Edward C. Outlaw as Commanding Officer of the USS INTREPID, while the "Fighting I" lay at anchor off Fuimicino, a small seaport village close to Rome.

A guest speaker, and the senior officer present, was Rear Admiral Ray C. Needham, ComCarDiv TWO. In part, he told the audience, "Command of one of our attack carriers today is one of the greatest experiences a naval officer can have. It is rewarding and satisfying; but it is also a tremendous responsibility and a difficult assignment."

Captain Outlaw, before reading his orders, said, "This is an occasion that I face with deep regret." His words to his crew before reading his transfer orders were, "I hate to say farewell."

Captain Minter, who spoke next, said, "... This is perhaps the happiest day of my professional life . . .

"I just came from the AirLant staff where I was in a position to observe, with a sort of detached view, the operations of all the carriers in the Atlantic Fleet. I'm not telling you anything you don't already know, I am sure, when I say that INTREPID's reputation in the Atlantic is right at the top."

Captain Outlaw says Goodbye . . .

Farewell gift.

CAPTAIN CHARLES S. MINTER, JR.

A native Virginian born on January 23, 1915 at Pocohontas, the Captain attended Logan High School at Logan, West Virginia, and graduated from Bluefield Junior College in Bluefield, W. Va., before entering the U.S. Naval Academy. He was graduated and commissioned Ensign in 1937.

Captain Minter's first sea duty was in the heavy cruiser USS HOUSTON, after which he served for a year on the Staff of Commander Cruiser Scouting Force in the USS CHICAGO. Beginning in August 1940, he underwent flight training at Pensacola and received his wings as a naval aviator in April 1941.

While he was performing ASW flights from Iceland with Patrol Squadron 73, the United States entered World War II. During the conflict Captain Minter served as Executive Officer of VP-53, Commanding Officer of HEDRON 9-1, and finally in the carrier USS RANDOLPH CVA-15, in the capacities of Assistant Air Officer, and Air Officer. While he was serving aboard the RANDOLPH off Ulithi, the ship suffered a direct hit by a Japanese kamikaze.

In December 1945, Captain Minter served as Transport Officer during the RANDOLPH'S first two "Magic Carpet" cruises between Norfolk and Naples. More than 5,000 bunks were installed on the ship's hangar deck and she brought nearly 6,500 troops home from overseas on each trip.

From the end of World War II until 1950 he was assigned to the Naval Air Test Center at Patuxent River, Maryland. Following this assignment the Captain assumed command of VP-28, engaged in combat operations over Korea.

Under his leadership, the squadron conducted flare drop flights, known as "Operation Lamplighter" for night air strikes by the First Marine Air Wing on North Korean targets. This marked the first time a VP squadron had been used in combat maneuvers of this nature.

For two years beginning in 1953, the Captain served as Executive Officer of the Physical Education Department at the Naval Academy, and in 1955-1956 he attended the National War College.

Included among his decorations are: two Bronze Stars with Combat "V", two Air Medals, American Defense with "A," American-European Theatre, Philippine Liberation, WWII Victory, U.S. and Korean Theatre Medals.

Captain Minter is married to the former Mary Margaret Skeehan of Beverly Hills, California. They have three children, Charles, 19, who is now in his second year at the Naval Academy; David M., 16; and Meredith Ann, 11. The Minters currently reside at 102 Burton Lane, Bay Colony, Virginia Beach.

COMMANDER LEROY PASCHAL SMITH, USN

Commander Leroy Paschal Smith, USN, was born in Hanna, Oklahoma, on 12 November 1919. He grew up in Coffeyville, Kansas, and attended Coffeyville Junior College before entering the Navy.

On entering the Naval service in 1941, he was sent to Naval Aviation Cadet training at the Naval Air Station, Corpus Christi, Texas. His first assignment after winning his wings was as an instrument instructor at the same station.

From late 1943 to 1944 he served with fighter squadron VF-39, which was land based in the Marshall Islands. Then followed an assignment to Fighter Combat Team Training Squadrons VF-98, 99 and 100. In 1945 he was assigned to fighter-bomber squadron VBF-1, aboard the USS BENNINGTON (CV-20), operating off the Japanese mainland.

Returning to the United States in January 1946, he spent the next six months as Personnel Officer at the Naval Auxiliary Air Station, Cuddihy Field, Corpus Christi, Texas. In June of that year he attended the Postgraduate School at Monterey, California, and the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, where he earned his Master's degree. From there he reported as CVG Staff Administrative Officer of Carrier Air Group (CAG) 11.

During the Korean War the then LCDR Smith served as Executive Officer for VF-114 operating from the USS VALLEY FORGE (CV-45) and USS PHILIPPINE SEA (CV-47).

He next reported to Washington, D.C. where he was assigned as Project Officer for development of jet engines in the Experimental Jet Engine Section of the Bureau of Aeronautics.

From 1953 to 1955 he was Commanding Officer of VA-42, which saw duty in the SIXTH FLEET in the Mediterranean, on board the USS RANDOLPH (CV-15).

As a member of the Board of Inspection and Survey at the Naval Air Test Center, Patuxent River, Maryland, he was responsible for the trial of new aircraft.

In 1958 Commander Smith reported to the Staff of Commander Carrier Division 17, aboard the USS YORKTOWN (CVS-10), which was deployed with the SEVENTH FLEET in the Western Pacific. He was Assistant Operations and Plans Officer for Air and ASW Operations.

EXECUTIVE OFFICER

In 1960 he was detached from COMCARDIV 17 Staff, and on 9 June he reported to the USS INTREPID (CVA-11) for indoctrination preparatory to becoming the Executive Officer.

Commander Smith holds the Distinguished Flying Cross and Air Medal with five Gold Stars, Victory Medal, American Defense Medal, American Theater Medal, Asiatic-Pacific Medal with three Stars, Navy Occupation Medal and Korean Campaign Medal with three Stars.

He is married to the former Lucile Bruton, of Lovelady, Texas, and has one son, Robert Benjamin, born 16 September 1947.
